Day 3 March 30, Sat. Program at a Glance

		7:30	8:00	9:00	10:00	11:00	12:00	13:00	14:00	15:00	16:00	17:00	18:00	19:00	~22:00
Kobe International Conference Center	Room A Main Hall			PL 3 Yoshinori Ohsumi P. 168	S36 Inter-tissue communications underlying metabolic and feeding control in living body (part I) P. 172		J LS 6 The Japanese Plasmalogen Society P. 196			S48 Inter-tissue communications underlying metabolic and feeding control in living body (part II) P. 184			PSJ and JSPFSM co-organized Special Guest Talk Nao Kodaira P. 171
	Room B International Conference Room				S37 Primate researches in Asian regions P. 173		J LS 7 Kracie Pharmaceutical, Ltd. P. 196			S49 Frontiers in pain physiology - from detection to the survival behavior P. 185		SL 5 Masashi Yanagisawa P. 169
	Room C Reception Hall				S38 Cutting-edge research topics on skeletal muscle plasticity in health and diseases P. 174		LS 8 Leica Microsystems K.K. P. 197			S50 Maternal influences on offspring development (AuPS, Australia) P. 186		SL 6 Graham D. Lamb P. 169
	Room D 401+402	J Educational Lecture 2 Mechanomedicine P. 201			S39 Cutting-Edge Optical Imaging of Neuronal Circuits and Synapses P. 175		J LS 9 P. 197		Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research on Innovative Areas "Advanced Bioimaging Support (ABIS)" of MEXT, Japan	S51 Cutting-edge Research in Neural Network Dynamics P. 187
	Room E 403				S40 Social communication through sensory information P. 176					S52 Sports and Brain P. 188
	Room F 501				S41 Leveraging novel techniques to research and translate synaptic transmission and plasticity (ISPP, Iran) P. 177				S47 New Frontiers in Regenerative Medicine of Renal Function(ShinkoIwa Clinic) P. 183	S53 Dynamic signaling of axon and presynaptic terminals revealed by direct recordings P. 189		SL 7 Laura Bennet P. 170
	Room G 502				S42 Physiological function of royal jelly contributing to healthy longevity(Yamada Bee Company, Inc.) P. 178		J TW 2 NARISHIGE SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENT LAB. P. 199			S54 Ca ²⁺ signaling in health and disease P. 190
	Room H 503				S43 TRP channels and inflammation/fibrosis P. 179		J LS10 airweave inc. P. 198			S55 Brain pathways linking between emotion, behaviour and autonomic responses P. 191
	Room I 504+505				S44 Cutting-edge approaches to long-lasting questions and novel aspects of inward rectifier K ⁺ channels -- A quarter-century anniversary of cDNA isolation (ISPP, Israel) P. 180		Iran Lunch P. 200			S56 Optical neuroscience: reading and manipulating neural computation behind cognition, memory, and behavior P. 192
	Room J 2A				S45 New molecular insights into the synaptic tagging and capture hypothesis P. 181		You need the ticket for lunch except for Iran Lunch. Please see P. 21.			S57 Alternative GPCR and G-protein signaling in cardiovascular disease and therapy P. 193
Room K 2B				S46 Plasticity of inhibitory signaling in Epilepsy: New Physiological Mechanisms P. 182					S58 Zinc physiology and pathophysiology P. 194
Kobe International Exhibition Hall, No.2 Building	Room L 3A								Outreach activities with school students P. 307
	Room M 3B										S59 Contribution of microglia in health and disease of the brain P. 195
	Poster Session Convention Hall			Posting time	Poster Viewing time			Poster Discussion Core time		Poster Viewing time	Removal time	Posting time for DAY4
